The Office of the Data Protection Commissioner will host the Network of African Data Protection Authorities (NADPA) Annual General Meeting and Conference from May 7th to 9th, 2024 at the Windsor Hotel and Golf Club. The NADPA-RAPDP AGM & Conference is an annual gathering of data protection authorities, sector decision-makers, businesses, as well as investors and multinational executives operating around Africa and beyond. The Conference is expected to be a significant gathering with over 700 participants in attendance.

The conference theme "Promoting Regional Data Governance for Digital Transformation" will seek to achieve several key objectives, including facilitating the exchange of knowledge and experiences among African data protection authorities to strengthen the implementation of robust data protection frameworks.

His Excellency President William Samoei Ruto, CGH. is scheduled to officially open the conference on Tuesday, May 7th, 2024. We cordially invite you to provide coverage during the official opening of the conference and during the two-day conference. Please RSVP by sharing your email to communications@odpc.go.ke in order to receive a prompt to register.
