

Industrial Attachment

MCK MEDIA INDUSTRIAL ATTACHMENT PROGRAMME

Call for Applications
Cohort October – December 2024

The Media Council of Kenya in partnership with recognized media houses runs a media industrial attachment that is geared towards providing journalism/media students with practical work experience required for graduation and preparing them for the job market.

4. Academic transcripts for the current academic year.
5. Valid Student Identification Card
6. Valid MCK Student Press Card 2024
7. Any sample of journalistic work done before.

Placement

Beneficiaries will be placed in recognized media outlets across the country under the following areas of specialization; Print, Broadcast Radio/Television, Technical/ Production and Digital.

Method of Application

Interested students can apply by submitting all requirements through the link <https://bit.ly/47GcxQs> with the subject title: Application for MCK Media Industrial Attachment Programme on or before Monday 30th September 2024.

The Media Council of Kenya does not solicit payments or recruit through Agents/Agencies.

Duration of the Industrial Attachment

The attachment lasts for a period of Three Months (3) October – December 2024. The Council will provide a monthly stipend for the trainees' upkeep.

Eligibility

Students pursuing degree or diploma in Journalism, Media Studies, Communications, Digital and corporate communication, who meet the above requirements are eligible to apply.

Eligibility Requirements

1. Final year students from a recognized university or college.
2. Recommendation letter from the university or college stating the period when the placement is required.
3. Valid registration for Industrial attachment unit at College or University.